AT THE TOP.

It is a laudable ambition to reach the top of the ladder of success. But many a man who reaches the top of the ladder of success finds his position a torment instead of a triumph. He has sacrificed his health to success, and he is now suffering from the results. A man can succeed in his career and be strong in his health. Nature's warnings, when he is in the early stages of his career, should be heeded. Indigestion, loss of appetite, playing in the car, dizziness, spots before the eyes or palpitation of the heart, any or all of these symptoms point to weakness and loss of nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the medicine to turn the tide. It is a laudable ambition to reach the top of the ladder of success. Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a sad condition that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails to perfect digestion ferments and awakens the stomach, pulling it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased. Mr. D. K. Noble, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was a bad man as I had trouble with it. I took Kodol's Digestive Cure for about four months and it cured me."

DEMOCRATIC "FAIRNESS"

The Appointment of Election Officers in Bourbon County.

List of the Republican Commissioner Ignored by the Mule Majority.

Paris, Ky., Sept. 28.—That the much-boasted fairness of the Democratic County Boards in appointing Republican officers of election spoken of in the Lexington Herald is not in evidence in this county, may be gathered from an interview with the Hon. H. Clay Howard, the Republican Commissioner for Bourbon county.

"The County Board met September 7," said Mr. Howard, "and a subcommittee was appointed to name eight names from each precinct to be submitted to the committee on or before the 15th day of September. September 8 I had an interview with Sheriff Wallace Mitchell, Democratic Chairman of the board, and agreed with him that the practice heretofore obtaining in this county should be followed, and that each side should select its own officers of election. After this understanding, the subcommittee did not file a list of names, but a list of officers was made out from the names furnished the Republican officer by said subcommittee."

When the board met and organized, the Democratic member of the board, B. B. Marsh, presented typewritten lists of election officers for both sides and moved that they be chosen as officers of election for the ensuing year. The Republican member of the board, Mr. Mitchell, objected to the list of the Democratic member, and forthwith presented a list of names of Republicans having the qualifications of officers of election. Chairman Mitchell when charged with having broken the agreement merely smiled and replied: "Well, claiming, he had entered into no such agreement, but had merely talked it over. The Democratic member announced, when their arbitrary and unfair action was protested against by me that they had the power and proposed to use it. I then left the meeting declaring I would not countenance any such proceedings on behalf of the Democratic majority to the board."

"Of the Republicans thus appointed, two, W. L. Collins, of Paris, and William Sparks, of Centerville, are octogenarians. Another, Postmaster at North Middletown; another so deaf that he is unable to transact any business; another, who, upon inquiry, was found to be unknown to any of the members present; another, a horseman, absent from home with his horse, and who it is known will not be present on registration day; and two thirds of the balance were men whom the Democratic members of the board knew would not, under the circumstances, serve as officers of election for Republicans."

"Here, then, is a sample of the much boasted Democratic fairness in appointing, contrary to a previous agreement, and over the protest of the Republican of the board, men who, either by reason of their infirmities or obscurity or absence are unfit to serve, and men whom they knew could not and would not serve. As the Republicans will probably nominate a local ticket in Bourbon and give the Democrats a hot fight, it will readily be observed, from this unfair and underhand tactics, that the Democrats mean to take time by the forelock and leave nothing to chance."

PAPA CAME TOO LATE

To Prevent the Marriage of His Elopement.

Ray Addington and Miss Grace Reid, from Smallhouse, Ohio county, came to the city in haste on horse back, Wednesday, for the purpose of getting married. No time was wasted in having the fagged horses stabled when they reached the city, and the young people were just as prompt in hastening to the county clerk's office, where a license was procured. The nearest "marrying officer" was next inquired for and W. E. Griffith and Will Day answered in chorus before conservative Jim Taylor had time to ask, "What did you say?" In a few seconds Esquire Rodman was pronouncing twin man and wife.

Then hurried footsteps were heard in the court house corridor and Miss Reid, of a few moments before, but Mrs. Addington now, looked around in an agitated way. "Sure enough it was her father, William Reid, who had ridden in haste from his home to prevent the marriage from taking place. But he was too late. It was hard for him to realize it, but upon fatherly Jim Taylor's and Esquire Rodman's assurance that he was only a "little too late" he subsided. He was not ready yet to impart his paternal benediction, but he quieted down and while he told his troubles the young people stepped out and went to the fair.—Owensboro Messenger.

Do You Want to Yawn? Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache, and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition it before the disease gets a hold, through it will work a cure in its stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, head ache, biliousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic. There is nothing as good." See at J. H. Williams.

Monroe, E. P. Taylor and R. G. Hill had a fight in County Court this morning.

The Z. T. Perkins ditch case was on. Mr. Hill addressed the court and said a certain order had been made. Judge Taylor spoke later and said that the order had not been made. Mr. Hill asked Judge Taylor if he meant to impeach that he, Hill, had made a statement not born out by the record. Judge Taylor repeated that the order had not been made. Mr. Hill struck Judge Taylor in the face, Judge Taylor at once countered and drew blood.

Judge Haskins kept his dignity and merely ordered some bystanders to separate the men, who had clinched. Clarence Wells, George Hawes and Justice McCall at once parted the belligerents. Judge Haskins sharply reprimanded Mr. Hill and afterward said that he intended to enter a fine for contempt.—Owensboro Messenger.

$800 FOR A PARDON

That is the Serious Charge Made by Mr. Speight in Speech.

Princeton, Ky., Sept. 28.—J. C. Speight, Republican nominee for Secretary of State, and Hon. W. P. Thorne, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, held a joint debate here last week.

Mr. Speight was introduced by Deputy Collector William S. Jones in a short address stating that from all indications he introduced the next Secretary of State provided he was not hanged by a Democratic court. Mr. Speight took the stand, and for one hour and a quarter criticized Gov. Beckham in particular and the Democratic party in general. He showed Gov. Beckham as the only shaver of Spanish war claims of all the Governors in the United States, and showed up his abuse of the pardoning power.

Mr. Speight stated that Gov. Beckham pledged himself to pardon a man in Graves county convicted of murder, who was serving a term of ten years in the Eddyville penitentiary, for the sum of $800 to be paid into the Democratic campaign fund. Mr. Speight further stated that he defied a denial from Gov. Beckham, and if he did so would prove the truth of the assertion by Democratic authority.

The enthusiasm was great, and at times Mr. Speight was forced to wait for the applause to cease. Col. Thorne was introduced by Ward Headley. Col. Thorne made a characteristic Democratic speech. In the course of his remarks he stated, in reference to the murder of Goebel, that he had never been able to make up his mind as to who fired the fatal shot, whether it was Yontey or Howard; but whoever it was should be hanged; and as to Caleb Powers, he believed he was convicted himself, and that if he was elected Lieutenant Governor, and if he was called on to pass on a pardon for Powers, he could not say whether he would let him hang or not.

Mr. Speight replied to Col. Thorne in a thirty minute rejoinder. After he closed hundreds came up and shook his hand. Among them were Democrats, who said they would vote the Republican ticket this fall.

An Effective Shield.

War in 1898, drought in 1901, strikes and slumps in stock in 1903, and yet Protection enables us to weather them all without any apparent difference in our prosperity.

It is said that the name, Phoebe Lyde, which stands for delicate little romances in Lippincott's Magazine, is the pen-name of a member of a talented family which has given Philadelphia ten or fifteen authors. In the October Lippincott there is a charming love-story of Charleston, S. C., over this name called "The Adventures of Amariylla."

The way Wilfrid Steuvel, clerk, got his wealth and joined the smart set in the theme of a complete novel by Frederic Reddick in Lippincott's for October. There is as much truth as poetry in the transformation.

Didn't Know.

While we are on the subject of the Powers jury it would not be out of place to add that intelligence of the jury as a body was clearly shown by fact that after listening to all of the testimony and arguments for four weeks, they were not able to distinguish the plaintiff from the defense, and in writing their verdict. Said: "We the jury find the plaintiff guilty and fix the punishment death."

Now the question is did the jury mean that the plaintiff, which is the commonwealth, was guilty of the conspiracy or did they mean that Powers was guilty but didn't know after having listened to the evidence and arguments for about four weeks, that he was the defendant? If they mean the former, surely Mr. Powers should not be punished as he is not the plaintiff. If the latter, we believe the public will agree and say with us that they were altogether too ignorant a set to sit in judgment upon the life or liberty of any of their fellow men.—Georgetown Sentinel.

Republican Speaking.

Hon. E. T. Franks, of Owensboro, will address the voters of Ohio county at Fordville Saturday, October 10th, and at the Court House here the following Monday, October 12. Speaking begins 1 o'clock p. m.
M. S. Ragland Ch'm'n.
E. M. Woodward, Sec'y.

The Democrats held a primary election in Covington and Kenton county last Saturday and the Beckham crowd carried off everything.

In the event that Mr. Birkhead should be elected Circuit Judge, T. J. Smith has been slated for the position of Master Commissioner under him, and his daughter, Miss Mary T. Smith, has been slated for the position of official stenographer, and P. L. Felix will, no doubt, be Trustee of the Jury Fund.

DURING Governor Bradley's term as Governor of Kentucky, there was paid out of the state funds for assistant Attorney General's fees the sum of $10,486.03—an enormous amount, you say. During Governor Beckham's administration there has been paid out as assistant Attorney General's fees the sum of $104,575.79. This amount does not include the $71,000.00 paid to C. C. Calhoun nor the $18,000.00 paid to the same individual. These are cold business propositions, and if you want the finances of the state taken care of, you should vote the Republican ticket.

FREE SPEECH—FREE PRESS.

The tactics which are being resorted to at present by the Democrat machine and administration at Frankfort, had been attempted ten years ago in Kentucky, a revolution would have resulted.

The passage of an election law, to prevent elections, the triumph of that infamous law in the seating of persons as State officials, who had been defeated by the people in an election held by the Democrats, has bred an arrogance, which now seeks to cast into prison those who may dare to criticize this set of "free stealers." In short, they have inaugurated a campaign of intimidation. A death sentence for Caleb Powers. The bloody bones of Goebel carted about over the State. Reporter Washer assaulted at the State Capital for prying in to the pardon record. Editor Allison and reporter Riley indicted for daring to mention the wrong doings of one of the gang. The principle organ of the machine threatening every prominent Republican in the State with Tom Campbell, Bob Franklin and the Franklin county grand jury.

These are some of the main planks in the Democratic platform this year—the main ones with which they hope to win this election. It is a condition which should cause every true Kentuckian, who is a lover of the right and a hater of the wrong, to hang his head in shame.

We have heard more than one Democrat say, recently, that these conditions were injurious to the business interests of the State and that they expected to cast their votes for a different party this fall. May the Lord increase their number daily and hourly.

AS TO QUALIFICATION, ETC.

The Hartford Herald, this week, raises the question as to the qualification of Mr. Birkhead for the office of Circuit Judge, and makes some statements in regard to certain law suits in the Ohio Circuit Court which were practiced by Judge Morrison.

The writer of the article in the Herald is densely ignorant of the facts or deliberately lied about Judge Morrison. The proprietor is supposed to be a lawyer, and if his candidate for Circuit Judge, endorses the course pursued by that paper in regard to Judge Morrison, then he is not a competent man for Circuit Judge.

The facts about the law suits mentioned in the Herald could have been learned from the records in the Clerk's office of the Ohio Circuit Court, and an examination of the records show that Judge Morrison gained his point in each of the law suits, and his contentions were upheld by the court in each instance.

a young man from Owensboro, etc., when, in fact, he is older than Mr. Birkhead and has had more experience as a lawyer, and according to Democratic authority, is a much better lawyer than Mr. Birkhead.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cherry & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally and acts to drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. Judge W. Scott Morrison, whose picture herewith presented, is a resident of Owensboro, where he has long been one of the foremost lawyers. He was nominated by the Republican Convention at Owensboro on September 1, for Circuit Judge of the Sixth Judicial District. Judge Morrison is a christian gentleman, and when elected Circuit Judge he will be an honor to the Judiciary of the State. He is thoroughly competent to fill the office and no one in his party or out of it has ever accused him of being incompetent.

The following is a copy of a resolution adopted by the Republican Convention of the Sixth Judicial District, of Kentucky, held in the City of Owensboro, on the 1st day of September, 1913.

"RESOLVED: That in the selection of one to fill the non-partisan office of Circuit Judge, the highest public interest requires one whose knowledge of the law and capacity to administer it in the courts are not questioned or open to discussion, and we therefore present to the voters of the Sixth Judicial District as a candidate of the Republican party, for that office, one whose qualifications have been recognized by all classes of the people, whose ability, capacity and learning will cause him to rank not only with the Judges who have occupied the bench in this District in the past, but who will measure up to the standard of the Judiciary throughout the State. We nominate W. Scott Morrison, of Daviess county, for Circuit Judge."

The Owensboro Messenger has the following to say of Judge Morrison: The Messenger to-day announces the candidacy of W. Scott Morrison for the office of Circuit Judge in this, the Sixth Judicial District of Kentucky. Mr. Morrison was not a candidate, but received the nomination when the Republican Convention met here September 1. He did not ask for the office, but the office sought the man in this instance. Judge Morrison was born and reared at Pellville, in Hancock county, Kentucky, in 1853, and is, therefore, fifty years of age. He was admitted to the bar in 1878 and located at Hawesville the next year. About ten years ago he removed to Owensboro, where he has enjoyed a good and constantly growing practice.

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.
She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

We will send you a little free.

We join with their many friends and wish for them a long and prosperous life.

OHIO COUNTY FAIR.
Opened Wednesday with a Large Crowd.

The Ohio County Fair opened Wednesday morning with one of the largest first day crowds ever seen at the Fair.

All the stalls are full of stock, the Floral Hall is crowded with exhibits, the races are the best, and to-day and to-morrow promised to be the biggest Fair ever held here.

The new company has been pushing the Fair business, and deserve great credit for the success of the Fair.

The rain yesterday morning cooled the atmosphere, and now the dust has been obliterated and everybody can enjoy the good attractions without interruption.

Yesterday was a record breaker in the way of a crowd. A number of people came to hear Col. Belknap speak and to attend the Fair.

COL. BELKNAP SPEAKS.
A Large Crowd Greeted Col. Belknap at the Court House Yesterday.

The Ohio County Fair Adjourned During the Speaking.

Col. Morris B. Belknap spoke to a crowded court house yesterday at 12:30. A large crowd had come to town to meet Col. Belknap and to attend the Fair, and it being understood that Col. Belknap would speak at the court house, the Fair stood adjourned until after the speaking and the large crowd marched almost in a body to the court house.

Promptly at 12:30 Col. Belknap was introduced by Hon. M. L. Heavrin, Republican nominee for Commonwealth's Attorney, and the vast assemblage cheered to an echo.

Col. Belknap took up the contest of 1899 for Governor and showed that Governor Taylor was elected Governor and the Hon. John Marshall was elected Lieutenant Governor, and referred to the action of the Nelson county election board, wherein said board refused to count the vote of Beckham's home county as cast at said election, and how the election in the city of Louisville was declared valid in the Democratic Legislature as to the race for Governor, and declared invalid as to the inferior officers, in order that all the Democrats for the inferior offices could be seated. The Colonel spoke at length on the condition of the Kentucky asylum and the penitentiary and showed how they are being run under Democratic rule. Gov. Beckham's pardon record was taken up, and the Colonel showed how Joe Raleigh who murdered a little 14 year-old girl had been pardoned for political effects. He dwelt on the question of a pardon for Caleb Powers, and said such questions would be considered in the proper way when properly presented, and he scored Gov. Beckham for making a campaign on the question of the life and liberty of any individual. He paid a glowing tribute to the manhood of Kentucky, and in closing called on the people to rally to the Republican standard and a glorious victory awaited us in the November election.

Dr. A. J. Adams accompanied Col. Belknap, and while here they were entertained by Col. C. M. Barlett.

HON. M. L. HEAVRIN.

The above is a very good picture of Mr. M. L. Heavrin, Republican nominee for Commonwealth's Attorney in this District. Mr. Heavrin was in town last Saturday and renewed many acquaintances, he having lived here a short time about fifteen years ago. He made a most pleasant impression and was assured by party leaders of his full strength.

The Clarion, as is well known, does not "gee" with Mr. Heavrin's politics, but a fair expression on his merits would compel us to say that he is a young man of exceptional ability and one fully capable of filling the office with credit and honor. He is, in strict sense of the term, a self-made man. Studious and painstaking, Mr. Heavrin has worked his way to the top of the Hartford bar, one that stands second to none in Kentucky in ability. He served his county four years as their attorney and we have been told that his conduct in office was most commendable. If we are to have a Republican Commonwealth's Attorney we certainly could not hope or expect to be served by a more gentlemanly or honorable citizen than Mr. Heavrin.—Hancock Clarion.

NOTICE.
We will be at Hartford, Saturday, October 3, 1903, to buy Mules and Horses.
LAZARUS & PORTER.

Brown-Campbell.
Mr. John Brown and Miss Oms Campbell, two of Ohio county's most popular young people, were married in Owensboro last Saturday where they had gone to attend the State Fair. The bride is a daughter of Mr. C. R. Campbell, living just below town, and is an excellent young lady, while the groom is a prosperous young farmer, living a few miles east of town. There were no objections to the marriage by the parents of the young people, but they thought to add some romance to their marriage they would marry while away from home.

E. O. Ross Dead.
Prof. E. O. Ross, a former resident of Hartford, and one of the best known young men of Ohio county, died at Monaca, Pa., Monday of paralysis. Prof. Ross had been sick for some time, but was thought to be getting along very well, and his death was a great shock to his family.

Prof. Ross left here several years ago, and since leaving here he has been engaged in school teaching in which profession he was very successful. He was the eldest son of Christopher Ross, who died several years ago.

Miss Mary Wedding, Anna Hickey, Lula Bowman and Martha Kitting attended the State Fair Friday.

Mrs. J. A. Wedding and niece, Nora Wedding, of Hartford, visited relatives here last week.

Mr. Estle Reiter, of Calhoun, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home Monday.

Mr. Frank Brooks, of Owensboro, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Brooks, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. R. P. Wedding and Austin Ramsey attended the State Fair Friday.

Messrs. Jno. Clark and Clarence Williams, of Olaton, and Miss Bertha Nave and Eula Barnhill and Mr. Taylor, of Habit, were the guests of Miss Tula Bowman Sunday.

Miss Anna McBrady has returned from a visit to Owensboro.

ROGERS-REYNOLDS

Romantic Love Affair to Have Pretty Ending.

Former Editor of The Republican to Wed Ohio County's Most Popular Young Lady on Oct. 21.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Lon Rogers, of Milton, Ky., to Miss Jessie Reynolds, of Fordville, Ky. The invitations came not as surprise to the many friends of the popular young people, for, at the first romantic meeting, their mutual admiration seemed to be nothing less than love.

Mr. Lon Rogers comes from one of the best families in Ohio county. He attended school at Mitchell, Ind., and afterward completed his education at the National Normal University at Lebanon, Ohio. Taking an active interest in public affairs he became the editor of THE HARTFORD REPUBLICAN and at once became noted for his bold and fearless attitude on all public questions. Preterring the quiet of business life he became identified with various banking interests, organizing banks at Campton, Wolf county, and Milton, Trimble county. In addition to being connected with several other banks he is the cashier of the Farmers Bank of Milton. He is not only an energetic, aggressive, successful, business man, but he is also a splendid type of the hightened moral gentleman.

Miss Reynolds, the bride-to-be, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Reynolds. Although nature not unkindly endowed her with the rarest gifts of beauty and intelligence, she was satisfied only with the highest achievements in belles-lettres and the finest of the fine arts. She was graduated from the Logan Female College at Russellville—both in the musical and literary courses—taking the degree of Bachelor of Arts and winning first honors in her class. She is both a social and literary favorite wherever she is known.

PLANS FOR THE WEDDING.

The wedding will take place at high noon on Wednesday, October 21, at the Baptist church in Fordville. Rev. T. J. Ratcliffe will be the officiating clergyman. The maid of honor will be Miss Nancye Smith, of Fordville; bridesmaids, Misses Hattie and Katharine Griffith, of Russellville, and Myrtle Johnson, of Fordville.

The best man will be Otto Fowler, of Kuttawa; groomsmen, James M. DeWeese and Sam S. Cox, of Hartford, and Arthur Smith, of Glendene. It is to be a crysanthemum wedding and little Misses Marion Adair and Irene Smith will be the flower girls. Dinner will be served at the home of the bride to the wedding party, after which Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will leave over the Texas railway at 3:20 p. m. They will be at home in Milton after October 25.

THE REPUBLICAN hastens to join in the universal and spontaneous congratulations.

Mothers.

Who would keep their children in good health, should watch for the first symptoms of worms, and remove them with White's Cream Vermifuge. It is the children's best tonic. It gets digestion at work so that their food does them good, and they grow up healthy and strong. 25c at J. H. Williams.

Baltzell-White.
Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. James Baltzell, of Auburn, Ky., was married to Miss Florence White, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. D. White, on market street, in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

Mr. Baltzell was formerly a citizen of Hartford and has many friends here who extend congratulations to him on winning the young lady of his choice. The bride was reared in Hartford and numbered her friends by the score. They will remain here during the Fair and will then go to the home of the groom at Auburn to live.

Call on A. C. Taylor for anything in the Undertaker's line. Coffins any size or style furnished at a reasonable price. His nice funeral car at your service any hour.

"It Goes Right to the Spot"
When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, Propr., Smith House Tenets writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest. 25c. 50c and $1.00 at J. H. Williams.

Pittie-Weise.
At the residence of Mr. John Leach, Sunday, the 20th, at 4 p. m. Pittie and Miss Irene Weise were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of a host of friends and relatives. Rev. G. J. Beas, pronounced the ceremony. These are two of Ohio county's most prominent young people, and they have the best wishes of a host of friends and relatives.

Ran a Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once I was in the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by J. H. Williams.

He Learned a Great Truth.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" John Wesley, because once telling is not enough. "It is for this same reason that I have told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. H. Williams.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Consult your doctor, if he says take it, then do so. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of execution No. 2054, 2057, 2058 and 2059, B. 11, directed to me, which I have returned to the office of the Ohio Circuit Court, in favor of Ben D. Ringo against Heiflich Lumber & Manufacturing Company, I, or one of my deputies, will, on Monday, the 5th day of October, 1903, between the hours of 1 o'clock P. M. and 3 P. M., at the Court House door in Hartford, Ohio county, Ky., expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder, the following (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy Plaintiff's debt, interest and costs) to-wit:

All the saw log timber, the timber, and growing timber of every kind and description whatever, which will measure sixteen inches or over, across the stump, three feet from the ground now standing upon the following described land, to-wit:

A certain tract of land in Ohio county, Kentucky, on the Hartford and Leitchfield road, about three miles north of Hartford, being the same land sold by R. M. Walker to Alex. Bennett and loaned on the North by the lands of Alf Carter; on the East by the lands of Elijah Morris; on the South by the lands of Albert Davis and E. L. Feliz; and on the West by the lands of B. P. Snellenger, containing two hundred and sixteen acres more or less.

Also levied same upon about 132 black oak and white oak saw logs cut and lying upon said land. Levied upon all the foregoing as the property of the defendant, Heiflich Lumber & Manufacturing Company by going upon said land and posting notice of this levy and giving notice thereof to occupant of said land and notifying H. P. Taylor, Esq., attorney for said defendant of this levy, defendant having no agent in this county, and taking into possession the 132 saw logs aforesaid.

This levy is made subject to levy of executions No. 2057 for $160.40 and execution No. 2054 for $40 and No. 2055 for $19.45 in this same action.

In testimony, whereof witness my hand this 9th day of September, 1903.
